The Power of Building Relationships

Research shows that students who feel safe and supported by adults at school are better able to learn.

Intentional Moves/Practices

- Greet at the door with a smile
- Say names correctly
- Create a welcoming space
- Structure/Routine-Circle,
Compact and Commitment
- Asset-based language/communication-the power of YET and what else?
- Collaboration

Dr. Winmill's Commitment to her Scholars

Commitment is an act, not a word.

Jean-Paul Sartre

quotefancy

I commit to provide conditions where all you scholars in my class will thrive.

I will not let you fail.

I will do all my best to help you advance
your academic language development.

I will provide resources to help you get where you need to be.

What I have learned from the video is that we need to turn our heads and talk to our partner while at the same time focusing on reading the article information. and I love how the people in the video immediately turn to talk to their partner when the teacher tells them to, and I respect how they can stand confidently in their seats to talk about what they had discussed with their partner.

Building Community Through Collaborative Board

- It fosters community and sense of belonging, connection, and unity.

Sense of Belonging and Community

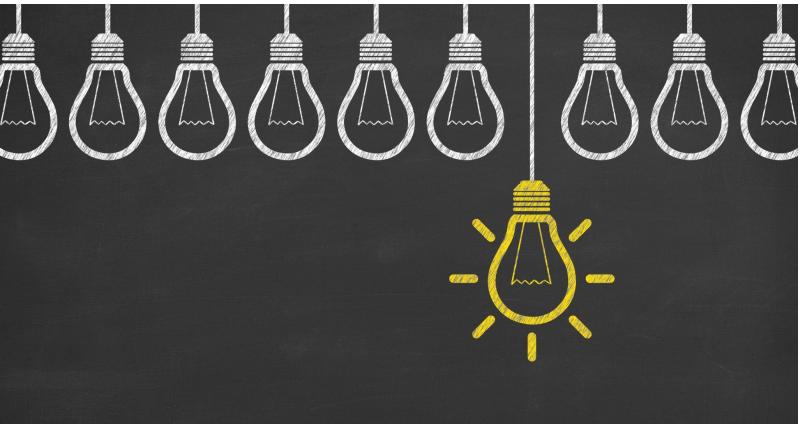

Why do we have “circles”?

- To get acquainted/ to know YOU
- To BUILD TRUST and RELATIONSHIPS
- IDENTIFY issues/root of a problem
- To seek solutions with a sense of UNITY and COMMUNITY
